 orders may be a ground for sanctions.

RESOLUTION OF DISCOVERY DISPUTES

5 In order to respond to discovery disputes in a flexible, cost-effective and efficient manner, 6 the court uses the following procedure. The parties shall not file formal discovery motions. Instead, 7 as required by the federal and local rules, the parties shall first meet and confer to try to resolve their 8 disagreements. The meet and confer session must be in person or by telephone, and may not be 9 conducted by letter, e-mail, or fax. If disagreements remain, the parties shall file a joint letter no 10 later than five (5) business days after the meet and confer session. Lead trial counsel for both 11 parties must sign the letter, which shall include an attestation that the parties met and conferred in 12 person or by telephone regarding all issues prior to filing the letter. Going issue-by-issue, the joint 13 letter shall describe each unresolved issue, summarize each party's position with appropriate legal authority; and provide each party's final proposed compromise before moving to the next issue. The 14 15 joint letter shall not exceed ten (10) pages without leave of court. In the rare instance that a joint 16 letter is not possible, each side may submit a letter not to exceed four (4) pages, which shall include 17 an explanation of why a joint letter was not possible. When appropriate, the parties may submit one 18 exhibit to the letter that sets forth each discovery request at issue in full, followed immediately by 19 the objections and/or responses thereto. No other information shall be included in any such exhibit. 20 No other exhibits shall be submitted without prior approval by the court. The court will review the 21 submission(s) and determine whether formal briefing or proceedings are necessary.

In emergencies during discovery events (such as depositions), any party may, after exhausting good faith attempts to resolve disputed issues, seek judicial intervention pursuant to Civil L.R. 37-1(b) by contacting the court through the courtroom deputy. If the court is unavailable, the discovery event shall proceed with objections noted for the record.

In the event that a discovery hearing is ordered, the court has found that it is often efficient and beneficial for the parties if counsel appear in person. This provides the opportunity, where appropriate, to engage counsel in resolving aspects of the discovery dispute while remaining available to rule on any disputes that counsel are not able to resolve. For this reason, the court expects counsel to appear in person. Permission for a party to attend by telephone may be granted, in the court's discretion, upon written request made at least two weeks in advance of the hearing if the court determines that good cause exists to excuse personal attendance, and that personal attendance is not needed in order to have an effective discovery hearing. The facts establishing good cause must be set forth in the request.

CHAMBERS COPIES AND PROPOSED ORDERS

All filings relating to a discovery dispute referred to Magistrate Judge Ryu shall list the civil case number and the district court judge's initials followed by the designation "(DMR)."

10 Under Civil L.R. 5-1(b), parties must lodge an extra paper copy of any filing and mark it as a 11 copy for "Chambers." Please three-hole punch the chambers copy and submit it to the Oakland 12 Clerk's Office. In a case subject to electronic filing, chambers copies must be submitted by the 13 close of the next court day following the day the papers are filed electronically. Any proposed 14 stipulation or proposed order in a case subject to electronic filing shall be submitted by email to 15 dmrpo@cand.uscourts.gov as a word processing format attachment on the same day that the 16 document is e-filed. This address should only be used for this stated purpose unless otherwise directed by the court. 17

PRIVILEGE LOGS

If a party withholds information that is responsive to a discovery request by claiming that it is privileged or otherwise protected from discovery, that party shall promptly prepare and provide a privilege log that is sufficiently detailed and informative for the opposing part(ies) to assess whether a document's designation as privileged is justified. See Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(b)(5). The privilege log shall set forth the privilege relied upon and specify separately for each document or for each category of similarly situated documents:

 a. The title and description of the document, including number of pages or Batesnumber range;

b. The subject matter addressed in the document;

c. The identity and position of its author(s);
